

The clouds – Hamburgs highest restaurant

Heaven's Bar & Kitchen located in the 'Dancing Towers'

Hamburg, May 2018. Having opened in October 2013, the clouds is one of the most spectacular members of the 'east cosmos' family. Being located 105 meters above ground doesn't only earn us the title of being the highest restaurant in Hamburg but further allows us to spoil our guests with a truly unique panoramic view onto the city. The clouds spans the three top floors of the skyscraper 'Dancing Towers' on the Reeperbahn, comprising a restaurant, a bar and the spacious roof terrace 'heaven's nest' as well as event areas.

Together with partner Andreas Fraatz, the gastronomy team headed by Christoph Strenger have brought this project to life. "We just had to seize the opportunity to develop such an exciting project at this stunning location", Strenger narrates.

Restaurant & Bar 23rd floor

The head of kitchen Eric Kröber put together an exciting and sophisticated menu in cooperation with master chef of east kitchen Tell Wagner that shows influences of the French cuisine and a great sense for meat specialties. Thanks to the traditionally very comprehensive and elaborate service at clouds, the team is excited to prepare several dishes directly at the table, allowing the guest to witness first-hand how the meat specialties were filleted, adding a little bit of a personal touch to their clouds-experience.

The clouds ambience is noble 'cozy' generated by oaken table boards and tanned leather in slight used-look. Our special furniture was manufactured by WAGNER furniture factory in Langenneufnach, Germany.

WAGNER stands for 'active sitting'. Therefore all of the chairs, couches and lounge furniture incorporate an element of movement, guaranteeing relaxed and healthy sitting in modern club chairs and lounge modules. A modern version of the 'classical tavern chair' decorates the bar in form of a matching stool at the clouds counter.

The drink menu contains drink creations beyond the mainstream, created by Bar Manager Bastian Knülle and includes an extensive, international selection of finest wines.

Gin Tastings

In today's times, Gin counts as one of the most popular spirit drinks ever, Gin Tonic one of the mainly consumed drinks worldwide. However, what Gin should be used to create the perfect Gin Tonic and what Tonic Water matches the best? What taste nuances do different gin sorts express and how can oneself refine its Gin? Periodic two-hour Gin tastings held by bar manager Bastian Knülle in collaboration with his team offer the perfect opportunity for Gin-lovers to answer all these questions and gain further knowledge on this fascinating topic. Interested parties are advised to book well in advance.

The highest open-air club of Hamburg impresses with its stunning view during the day while being a place-to-be for party animals during the night. Additionally to several evening events and parties, DJs will sweeten our nights from Thursdays to Saturdays during the summer times between May and September. “It's a real hot spot during summer times”, enthuses the CEO of east Christoph Strenger.

Lounge furniture in light colors and noble, pastel colored covers on platforms, high tables with stools around the champagne bar, cosy seating areas and daybeds embellish the south tower of the building designed by Hadi Teherani.
